Roger Epp - Professor of Political Science at the University of Alberta and author of We Are All Treaty People, an exploration of what it means to live in the prairie West with a sense of memory, care, and obligation. He was an honorary witness at hearings of the Truth and Reconciliation Commission at Ermineskin First Nation.

Millie Glick - Retired Co-Director of Mennonite Voluntary Service in Northern Alberta; mother of five, grandmother of eight; loves poetry, and is the author of "Bush Tales".

Ike Glick - Retired First Nations Community Development Specialist; He worked with Calling Lake residents to develop a local Health Centre, and with three other communities (Sandy and Chipewyan Lakes and Anzac) to establish schools. He became instrumental in socio-economic initiatives based on local skills and resources.

Calvin Bruneau - Chief of the Papaschase First Nation, he is the elected chief and a direct descendant of Chief Papaschase. He was instrumental in ensuring that the City of Edmonton acknowledge the Traditional Burial Ground and Fort Edmonton Cemetery. He is re-establishing the Papaschase First Nation.
